Born in the Indiana heartland and raised on Woodstock-era vinyl and a barroom jukebox, Tim cut his teeth playing in grungy garage bands and at cornfield concerts for bonfire audiences. A degree in guitar performance, a bit of world traveling and a whole lot of reading the room in all sorts of peculiar situations manifested in his "Human Jukebox" performance style - summoning what the space calls to create.

Busting out bluesy, rootsy, foot-stomping originals as readily as a night of songs you know by heart, Tim can set a subtle ambiance, strike up a dance party or steer a sing-along based on the vibe of the crowd.

Tim is available to book sets of all-original music up to three hours and cover sets up to five hours. Here are some of the artists Tim covers:
